Cotswold Way National Trail

Hamswell Valley: The Hamswell Valley is a typically beautiful section of the Cotswold Way

Lansdown Crescent: Just one of the many impressive buildings in Bath

Start and finish: Bath Abbey West Door marks the start and finish of the Cotswold Way

About the Cotswold Way Association

We are a registered charity dedicated to; repairing, maintaining and improving the Cotswold Way, and increasing accessibility for all. We work closely with Cotswold National Landscape, appointed by Natural England to manage the Cotswold Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Installing new handrails costs £200

Improvements to muddy footpaths cost £15 per sq/m

Your donation will help us keep the Cotswold Way accessible to all. To give, either visit our website or scan the QR code.
